West Port notches 10-8 win over Trinity Catholic

STAR-BANNER STAFF

OCALA - In a game suspended a month earlier, the Wolf Pack got enough pitching and offense to hold off Trinity Catholic, 10-8. The regularly-scheduled game for this date, however, was rained out.

Jesus Valle got the pitching win, going 6 $\frac{1}{3}$  innings and allowing eight runs (four earned) on 10 hits and six walks with eight strikeouts. Jeff Hayes, Mike Barnes and Derek Mahlman each had two hits for host West Port, which improved to 6-17 with its second-straight win.

The Wolf Pack host Forest at 7 p.m. tonight.

LATE TUESDAY

VANGUARD 8, NORTH MARION 7. At North Marion, J.R. Rekully picked up his 11th win of the season and Eric Grabe struck out the side in the seventh to pick up his third save as the Knights overcame an early 3-run deficit to grab the win.

Rekully pitched six innings, allowing three earned runs and striking out six. He added a solo home run that knotted the score at 3-3 in the third inning.

J.B. Barrientos had three hits, Andy Paul added two hits and three RBIs and Matt Bevis chipped in two hits and drove in two runs for the Knights, which moved to 17-6 on the year.

Matt Seese had two hits and two RBIs and Cade Smith added a two-run triple to pace the Colts.

Vanguard plays at Dunnellon tonight.
