Summary: Athletic projectable frame with plenty of room to fill out. Excellent speed. Very good skills across the board. Needs to gain weight and build strength. Overall solid player with a chance to be an impact college player. Decent student with 3.0 GPA.

Recommendations:

- Would like him in a core strength program to improve overall body strength.
- Recommend speed and agility program to build on speed
- Would like to see him in a long toss program to continue improving arm
- Needs to continue to work hard to improve skills

GetMyNameOut.com Rating Scale

5- Definite draft pick in the future with two or more average MLB tools right now. Definite D1 college prospect.

4- Possible D1 college player, most likely lower level D1 player or top level D2 player. Possible draft pick in future.

3- Athletic projectable tools to become a good college player. Strength and skills development is a must for this player to be successful. Top NAIA or top Junior College player.

2- Possible college player. Must grow into his frame and improve his skills in all areas to be a college player. Best fit is in a junior college or D3 program.

1- Short on skills, experience and athleticism. Chances are slim but not impossible to play beyond the high school level.
